Laura is a yogi, yoga and meditation instructor as well as a physical therapist. She was born in Estonia but she grew up in Sweden. Over the past seven years she has lived, worked, taught and studied around the globe, from Indonesia to Spain. She has been practicing yoga and meditation since she was a teen. The therapeutic effect on her created an interest in deepening her knowledge. When she finished high school she went to South and Central America where she followed through a guided meditation course in Guatemala. Following her travels her interest grew and during her physiotherapy university studies she went to Rishikesh, India to do the Meditation and Hatha Yoga Teacher Training course. She returned to university with the wish to introduce yoga and the therapeutic side of it to the university. She wrote her bachelor’s thesis about yoga as a therapeutic treatment. Laura’s most recent yoga journey took her to Bali, where she followed through another training for teachers with her gurus and disciples of both yoga legends Pattabhi Jois and B.K.S. Iyengar.

After the teacher training in both India and Bali, Laura’s style expanded. Her classes today are based on a Vinyasa Yoga style with focus on alignment, breath work and clarity of the mind to ultimately create balance in the physical, mental and spiritual body. She always adapts every class so it is relaxing, meditative, energizing and breaks down challenging asanas (positions) so they are accessible but still fun for every level, from beginner to advanced.
